

Welcome to the "Christmas fair".

New Year gifts and winter fun await citizens and guests of St. Petersburg in the historic center of the city.

From December 12 to January 13, a Christmas fair will be held in the historic center of St. Petersburg- on Manezhnaya square, Malaya Sadovaya and Klenovaya streets.

All guests of the fair expected to observe an unusual and bright decoration of the space. There will be 63 trade pavilions, where everyone can buy the best products from the Russian regions including delicacies for the festive table, products of craftsmen, toys and special gifts.

The big entertainment program at the Christmas fair will include themed workshops for children in the house of Ded Moroz and the crafts house, a skating rink and street attractions. The organizers prepared many festive surprises for the visitors. Guests will be shown the traditions of the meeting of Catholic and Orthodox Christmas, the ceremony of meeting Ded Moroz and lighting the Christmas tree. Every evening there will be a colorful light show on the wall of the Mikhailovsky Manege. Guests of the fair will be able to warm up and eat in the thematic zone "Cuisines of the world".

Entrance to the Christmas fair is free.

It will be open daily from 12.00 to 21.00, and only on January 1 - from 14:00.
